BIG BATTLE IN NORTHERN FRANCE

Terrific Fighting Going On--Heavy Re- inforcements Being Rushed to West Flanders

(Special to The Herald)
Paris, Feb. 9.—The gigantic struggle between the Allies and Germans in the north of France is continuing night and day with both infantry and artillery employed. The struggle is particularly severe immediately north of Arras and west of Neuville St. Vaast. The French war office in an official communication today admits that the Germans were able to penetrate some of the position of the French but were later driven back to their own lines.

London, Feb. 9.—Concentration of German reinforcements and guns in West Flanders is going forward without pause. A Central News dispatch estimated that 600,000 German troops have already been sent into West Flanders and France to reinforce the northern end of the German battle front. The Germans now have at least three of their 22-mile range guns on the west front.

Berlin, Feb. 9.—German troops have captured by storm all the French trenches on a front of eight hundred yards long in the region immediately west of Vimy. It was officially announced by the war office today. It is admitted that the French were able to penetrate a position which had been captured by the Germans south of the Somme river. Another French aeroplane has been destroyed at Priestland.

RUSSIANS WILL MAKE NEXT MOVE

French Expert Looks for Big Campaign on Eastern Front.

(Special to The Herald)
Paris, Feb. 9.—"The next big offensive movement will be seen in the eastern theatre of war and will be opened by the Russians," says the famous war expert, Gen. Berthoin in the Petit Journal today. He said that he believed that the Germans must soon now on act only on the defense.

Another shooting affair at Provence just as the Mohr case is being taken off the front pages.

FOR MURDER OF MOTHER AND BROTHER

John E. Teiper Indicted in Buffalo--Sister Still Un- conscious.

(Special to The Herald)
Buffalo, Feb. 9.—John E. Teiper, accused of having killed his mother and brother Frederick and of having probably fatally beaten his sister Grace, on the Orchard Park road, near here a week ago last Sunday, was indicted today on a charge of first degree murder. The sister is still in the hospital in an unconscious condition.

Some fast horses will appear in the races at Dover today.

DEMOCRATS TARIFF COMMISSION BILL

New Bill Introduced Today Has a Wide Range--Would Revise the Entire Tariff

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, Feb. 9.—The administration views and plans for a tariff commission were today laid before congress. A new bill differing materially from the measures already introduced and creating a commission with broad powers, extending far beyond the tariff, was introduced in the house by Representative Doremus of Michigan, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee. The bill is designed to meet all the political arguments which have been directed against the Democratic tariff law. It would open the way for a thorough revision of the tariff in almost any direction and is filled with plans for the encouragement of American industries.

GUILTY OF MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE

Oscar Russ Convicted by Jury in Boston--Takes Verdict Without Emotion.

(Special to The Herald)
Boston, Feb. 9.—After being out 22 hours, the jury today in the case of Oscar P. Russ, who is charged with the murder of his wife Emily, at their New York. The vessel is expected to turn a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Russ displayed no emotion when the jury reported the verdict. He will be sentenced later.

WILL SPEAK HERE ON SUNDAY EVENING

Dr. L. H. Merrill, president of the Boston University will speak at the First Methodist church on Sunday evening next. Dr. Merrill is a very talented speaker and those who attend are assured of a rich treat.

GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST BRANDEIS

Chairman of Iowa R. R. Com- mission Charges Bad Faith on His Part in Big Case.

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, Feb. 9.—Grave charges against Louis D. Brandeis, nominated by the president as supreme court justice, were made in a public hearing today before a sub-committee of the senate judiciary committee. Clifford Thorn, chairman of the Iowa railroad commission, caused a sensation when he deliberately told the committee that he believed that Brandeis was guilty of first, infidelity, breach of faith and unprofessional conduct in connection with one of the greatest cases of this generation. Second, committing himself as counsel for the Interstate Commerce Commission to the proposition that a return of 7 1/2 per cent on railroad capital is not adequate, although the commission had fixed that rate as an adequate profit. The charges delivered in a calm, deliberate tone, took away the breath of the committee and made the crowd in the room gasp. He revealed in detail the conduct of himself and Mr. Brandeis in the railroad rate case of 1910 and 1912 before the Interstate Commerce Commission. He sought to show that Mr. Brandeis, after acting for the shippers in 1910 had become attorney for the commission in 1912 and had not acted in good faith. The object of his testimony was to show that his conduct was unbecoming a lawyer of judicial temperament and that on the railroad question the supreme court candidate was already committed and would not be able to act if such question came before him as a judge of the highest court.

Thorn's testimony was detailed and involved, and the committee at times had difficulty in following it. Several members questioned him closely to keep the record plain.

As Thorn concluded, Senators Cummins and Walsh jumped in with questions. They endeavored to show that the position taken by Brandeis in no way showed that he had conceded that increased rates were necessary. They developed that Brandeis said "that while the net revenue of the railroad was not sufficient that these net revenues should be increased by economy in the management." They argued at length with the witness but reached no satisfactory conclusion. After three hours' examination of Thorn they found the committee room so crowded that further proceedings were impossible. The recess was taken until tonight.

MILL WORKERS WILL DEMAND TEN PER CENT INCREASE

(Special to The Herald)
New Bedford, Feb. 9.—The carders and ring weavers at a general meeting held last evening, went on record as being in favor of standing out for a general ten per cent increase in the cloth mills. The mills had offered a five per cent increase.

FIRE DAMAGES CATHOLIC CHURCH

(Special to The Herald)
Boston, Feb. 9.—Fire starting in the basement storeroom of St. Bidula's Catholic church, South Boston, burned into the main body of the church today and enveloped the altar, causing a damage estimated at $18,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

SOCIETY LEADER IS INDICTED

Mrs. Whitney Warren Failed to Properly Value Her Dresses.

New York, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Whitney Warren, society leader, and wife of America's foremost artist, was indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of defrauding the government, by under valuing goods she brought from Europe last November. She had wearing apparel and millinery which she valued at $1,000, while government appraisers valued them at $9,000.

FRENCH CRUISER FIRES ON LINER

Mistook Steamship Canadian for Hostile War Ship.

(Special to The Herald)
New York, Feb. 9.—The steamship Canadian, which arrived today, reported that she was fired upon five times by the French cruiser Descaudres, when entering the harbor of the Port of France, Martinique. Two of the shells struck the pilot house, but no one was injured. An officer from the cruiser, who afterwards boarded the ship, explained that the Canadian was mistaken for a hostile war ship.

There are rumors of the possible appointment of another man to the police department, but no confirmation could be gained last night.

BASKETBALL GAMES WON BY CITY FIVE AND Y. M. C. A.

P. A. C. and Barracks Teams Lose in Last Evening's City League Games at Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

The Y. M. C. A. team again came out at the winning end in the City League game last evening, defeating the Marine Barracks in a fairly fast game by a score of 20 to 9, and the City Five created a surprise by winning their game from the P. A. C. five, the score being 13 to 15 and the end of the third period.

The Y. M. C. A. Barracks game was featured by the clever work of Hoopa at center for two periods and in the third he replaced Corbin at guard, Craig going in as center. Their principal work was keeping Cunningham successfully covered as he has been showing some skill lately in locating the basket. In last evening's game he was prevented from scoring a single point.

The second period was the most interesting of the three as each team succeeded in throwing but one basket. In the last session the winners came ahead fast, allowing but two successful shots from their opponents and scoring twelve points.

Grant and Miller did the more effective work for the Barracks. The summary:

WITH THE SPORTS

Utica, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Seven of the eight men who rowed the Cornell varsity shell to a sensational victory at Poughkeepsie last June will headma nely candidates for seats in the 1916 eight when rowing practice is resumed on February 14th. Six of the eight men who rowed in the victorious "Jumbo" eight last June also are available, while every member of last year's freshman crew will be eligible for the varsity.

About one hundred candidates for places in the freshman shell will also resume training at the beginning of the second term.

Thus the outlook for the development of three strong eights at Cornell this year is very bright. Indications point to an early breaking up of the ice in the Cayuga inlet which will permit the beginning of outdoor water practice within a short time. In view of the fact that Cornell faces a hard schedule this year early practice on the water would be a great boon to coaches and oarsmen. Cornell varsity and freshman eights are to row Harvard on the Charles, the varsity eight is to meet Princeton and Yale on Cayuga Lake and three crews will be entered at Poughkeepsie.

Only one member of last year's varsity will not be available this year. He is J. E. O'Brien, who for two years rowed at No. 7 in the varsity shell. He was graduated last June. Collier, the crack Cornell stroke oar, will without

ED GEERS, GREATEST OF ALL HARNESS DRIVERS, HAS WON OVER A MILLION

New York, Feb. 9.—According to long career is ended the verdict of horsemen will be that, take him all in all, we shall not look upon his life again. Hiram Woodruff and Ed Geers are the only men in the past who have rivaled Geers in popular esteem and professional reputation. He has won more races than either of them, he has never resorted to shady tricks to win nor connived at secret advantages in entering his horses. In 1877 Geers first came up north from his suggested that a quintet of young players be picked, boys who will allow that they can be shown and are willing to learn. With this end in view an up-to-date coach should be provided. This is a real necessity to get results. Of course funds would be necessary for this purpose but this could be met by a benefit affair in the form of a preliminary introduction of the game of the season. The old-time interest would again become manifest with a team of local boys selected for ability alone. There is an old saying: Nothing ventured, nothing gained, and the writer believes it is a good shot if properly handled.

BOWLING

CHALLENGERS DEFEATED
Their victory last evening in the Fogarty-Legary match at the "Alley" after the ten string match because Capstick and Hepworth hit the wood for a 50 pin total in excess of the total made by the aforementioned Fogarty and Legary. There is little change for an audit by the defeated bowlers as their challenge barred none enrolled in the Blue League and both Capstick and Hepworth are so enrolled.

Hepworth was pressed into service only at the last moment as Eddie Conney was to have been Capstick's teammate in the festivities. Owing to ill health Eddie was unable to work and Hepworth appears to have done a satisfactory job.

The pins were breaking badly for the challengers, but as that is part of the game the winners claim that there is no possible opportunity to register a kick.

Fogarty fell down in his last five strings, getting bad breaks from what appeared to be perfect hits and in the second half he never went higher than 55. His last string was a 65.

Legary seemed playing in hard luck also, as his total was only 750, ten pins below that of Hepworth. In his fourth string he made a 59 which he claims is the poorest exhibition he ever made. The summary:

Capstick	Hepworth	Fogarty	Legary

Linchey Won Over Welsh
At the Arcade Alley last evening Linchey defeated Welsh in a ten string match winning by 55 pins. Linchey made five strings better than 100 and his lowest was his second when he made an 85. Welsh reached the 100 mark but twice. The summary:

Commercial League
At the Arcade Alley: Team No. 1 took three points from Team No. 6 in the Commercial League game. Paul rolled a total of 315 for Team No. 1, making all three strings better than 100. Quinn rolled 290 for high total for Team No. 6. The summary:

WANT TO GET GOVERNMENT SECRET
In the light of the Navy Department to keep secret its development of the most powerful wireless telegraph apparatus in the world, Judges Case, Ward and Rogers, in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday in New York, heard argument in the appeal from a decision of Judge Charles M. Hough, dismissing an injunction, and he became from damages.

The time of trouble," he then said, "at periods when the arm of the government is in need of strengthening, the executive may be left in the exercise of powers perhaps doubtful in law, but temporarily necessary for national safety, by the refusal of drastic relief and the remission of private litigants to slower processes of pecuniary recompense."

J. P. H. Bates, of Sheffield & Betts, arguing that Judge Hough's decision be reversed, contended that the government, before applying to its own use a patented article, must first take the matter before a court unless an agreement has been reached between the manufacturer and the government on the patentee is a member of the military or naval forces of the country. If Judge Hough's ruling held good, Mr. Bates contended, a government contractor could avail himself of any patent and use it for his own purposes and be immune from damages.

and according to an alleged patent infringement action brought by the Marconi Wireless Telegram Company of America against Emil J. Simon, a radio engineer, who has a contract with the Navy Department for equipping the super-dreadnaughts.

Judge Hough, when he dismissed the injunction, said that it was clear that if Mr. Simon did not complete his work injury to the military arm of the government would result. No injunction, he said, would be issued in any way interfering with the contract now existing between Mr. Simon and the United States.

INCREASE IN SALARY REFUSED TO TEACHERS

Board of Instruction at Regular Meeting Rejected Recommendations of Committee for Larger Salaries.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Ward Make Valuable Gifts for Lafayette School.

By a vote of nine to three the Board of Instruction at their regular monthly meeting held at City Hall Tuesday evening rejected the recommendation of the special committee for an increase in salaries for the teachers in the several schools of the city. The recommendations of the committee were rejected on a vote and may vote after considerable discussion, the opposition being led by Messrs. Page, McCarthy and Gooding with Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Benfield speaking in favor of the proposed increase of Dr. W. S. Towle who presented figures comparing the salaries paid by the City of Portsmouth and that paid by other cities of similar size, and also with the wages paid to mechanics in this city.

An announcement was made at the meeting by Superintendent Pringle of the offer of two valuable gifts to the city for the Lafayette School, made by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Ward. These gifts consist of a set of the Spaulding steel playground apparatus which includes swings, chute and others and is offered by Mrs. Ward. The gift offered by Mr. Ward is a solid bronze water fountain and is to be a duplicate of one seen by him while on a visit to the State of Washington, which he greatly admired. The offers of Mr. and Mrs. Ward were accepted together with a vote of thanks, on motion of Judge Page. It is the intention of the donors to have the playground apparatus set on the playground in front of the school and the fountain will stand between the building and the playground.

At the suggestion of Superintendent of Instruction James N. Pringle, it was voted to hold a night session of three periods as a method of giving the parents of the high school pupils an opportunity of seeing the classes at work. The time and arrangements for these special class sessions were left to the superintendent.

The meeting was called to order by the mayor with the following members present: Messrs. Page, Knight, McCarthy, Hodgdon, Newick, Mitchell, Towle, Gooding, and Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Benfield and Mrs. Hewitt.

The following monthly report of the finance committee was accepted.

Expenditures for January
Expenses of General Control $113.66
Expenses of Instruction 4688.97
Salaries of teachers and Supl. 4688.97
Text Books 303.12
Pupils' Supplies 71.06

Other expenses of instruction 53.16
Expenses of Operation of Plant
Salaries of Janitors 455.00
Light and Power 21.23
Janitors' Supplies 31.78
Other expenses of operation 10.97

Expenses of Maintenance of Plant
Building Repairs 21.83
Equipment Repairs 10.75

Outlays
New Equipment 301.10

The report of the finance committee containing the estimate for the year was submitted and accepted and the amount will be submitted to the City Council for appropriation.

Average Attendance 90 Percent
The monthly report of the Superintendent showed 2148 pupils enrolled in the public schools and an average attendance of 90 percent. Discussion at the meeting showed this figure was excellent owing to the great amount of sickness throughout the city.

The meeting accepted the report of the superintendent of the resignation of Miss M. P. Rothwell as principal of the Haven School and the appointment of Miss McDaniel as per the vote of the board at the last annual meeting.

No School Signals Changed

The meeting voted to accept the recommendation of Superintendent Pringle regarding the No School signal which allows the holding of a school session on stormy days that parents no wishing may allow their children to attend, and as no record for attendance on days when the signal is sound and those remaining away will not be considered as absent.

At the request of the Farragut Parent-Teachers Association Mayor Ladd appointed a special committee to confer with the association on the matter of additional play ground space for the school. The committee appointed is Messrs. Knight, Newick and Mitchell.

The board felt obliged to refuse the request of Captain Bodwell of the 1st Company, C. A. C., for the use of the apparatus of the gymnasium in the Whipple School for the new armory.

This request was refused by the board owing to the fact that much of the money used in the purchase and maintenance of this apparatus came from private subscriptions and not from funds appropriated by the city government.

REASON IN FEMININE FASHIONS

At last there is to be some reason other than mere exposure for the hiatus which present styles in feminine apparel have created between skirts and ankles. The conversational stocking, embroidered with pertinent suggestions, household hints and where the ankle permits, a complete article on some topical subject, is to make its appearance in Broadway.

This information comes from Palma Beach, where conversation regarding ankles has long been a leading diversion. In fact, where good form is always observed, and as near as is possible, shown. The history in question appeared there the other night and bore the caption:—"Good night" and "delighted." The stockings were worn with a ball gown on ankles built for appearance and speed. Considering some of the photographs which have developed from bathing scenes at Palma Beach conversational stockings, depicting some of the history of the present war are possible and not at all improbable there.

When history of that variety appears along Broadway another death blow will be dealt to those poor old windy corners about Madison square, Herald square and Forty-second street. Before the chronic bare, which reveals the ankle, developed into the short skirts, the sleek haired boys with bordered handkerchiefs used to pray for wind and hang around these corners. Now their only amusement lies in mathematical guesses on the circumference of the exposed scenery between skirt edges and shoe tops.

Of course some diversion was afforded when the ankles began to wear little fur moustaches, particularly where the ankles were of that utilitarian design which immediately convinced the beholder that a crowd was on its way somewhere. The fuzzy affairs are disappearing now, and in their place the ankle will bluish forth on mankind with burning words.

Considering that this is leap year, here is an excellent chance for the young women with a good, substantial ankle, not so overwhelming that it interferes either with the other ankle or the landscape. Let her choose her young man, and then manage to walk ahead of him each morning to the subway. Being a young man, he'll naturally look at her ankles; they all do, although around the house, to stand while they discourage such practices among their younger brothers.

On each ankle she should embroider in neat, but gaudy characters the first chapter of a mysterious detective story. The young man attracted will read and read, until he finds himself sitting across from her in the subway, then as if unconsciously, she should slip one limb over the other, displaying in characters this legend—"Continued tomorrow." This story should be continued for a week. By that time the young man will have made the young woman's acquaintance or he is a dead one and should be abandoned to other ankles. The rest lies with her.

For the unprotected maiden the embroidered stocking will prove a boon. Consider the approach of some henna-eyed monster who flirts:

"Ah, there, dearie," says he. In answer the indignant young maiden lifts here, skirt daintily a few inches and displays an appropriate cartoon, possibly the picture of a man before a Magistrate, with this caption—"Sixty days for yours." On the other stocking she might display this lady-like emblem:

"Beat it before I call a cop."

In the household the conversational stocking will prove a great boon to the modern mother. Lounging back in the easy chair smoking a cigarette she may read some of these delectable French bits like "Smashed," "Good," "What is Home While the Husband Persists," or other outpourings of advanced thought. Of course her young son, if she has one still living despite her, will have to disturb her sometime.

"Maw," he will say, "I want some bread and butter."

Kicking her limb a little to the left "maw" will reveal a foot or so of hostility.

"Son," it will read, "how many times have I told you to practice silent reflection at this hour? Go now to your room or I will have the maid chastise you."

Oh, conversational stockings are going to be great articles of dress and undress. At least the man who just can't keep his eyes front will have a valid excuse to offer for his optical gyrations. And, above all, a new form of imparting knowledge direct from the understanding has been discovered. Help!

HEAVY DAMAGE AT DOVER FIRE

Owing to a defective chimney the house of Louis Hanson on the road between Dover and Somersworth, near Gage Hill, was badly gutted by fire Tuesday afternoon. Both the Dover and Somersworth fire departments arrived and the blaze was extinguished before the building was entirely destroyed. The damage is placed at $1,000.

BIG PURSE FOR TEN-ROUND BOUT

Willard and Moran to Meet in New York, March 18.

New York, Feb. 8.—Jess Willard, world champion heavyweight and Frank Moran will meet in a ten round bout at Madison Square Garden here on March 18, for a purse of $70,000. It was announced today by Tex Rickard, promoter of the match.

The date originally agreed on was March 17, but it was changed because Madison Square Garden, the only available place for holding the match here had been previously engaged for that date. Rickard said tonight that the board of directors of the garden had agreed to accept $7,500 for its use, with no percentages.

While a tentative agreement already had been signed for the bout between Tom Jones, manager of Willard, and the Dorgan, they will meet again tomorrow to sign the final articles.

The purse, which is the second largest ever offered for a match, stands as originally agreed upon, at least $60,000, with a $10,000 bonus. Willard's share will be $47,500 and Moran's $22,500.

Seals will be constructed, according to Rickard, to accommodate 13,000 persons. Prices will range from $50 for boxes near the ring to $3 for seats. As near as it is possible to estimate at this time, it will mean that the promoters will receive an average of probably $3 a seat, provided the Garden is filled to capacity.

Sporting critics tonight estimated that the total receipts would have to be in the neighborhood of $120,000, to return a profit. In addition to the purse, bonuses and rental of the Garden, a tax of seven and one-half percent of the gross receipts must be paid to the state under the law.

It is said portions of the main floor of the Garden will be built up on an incline to permit the large seating capacity. Ordinarily the Garden will seat about 10,000 persons.

Whether there will be any preliminary bouts has not been decided. Rickard said the referee and stakeholder, probably would be named tomorrow.

The offer of so large a purse for a ten round bout has caused much speculation among the sporting fraternity here. The only other figure topping this one was that of $101,000 with $20,000 bonus, also made by Rickard for the Johnson-Jeffries fight at Reno, Nevada.

On each ankle she should embroider in neat, but gaudy characters the first chapter of a mysterious detective story. The young man attracted will read and read, until he finds himself sitting across from her in the subway, then as if unconsciously, she should slip one limb over the other, displaying in characters this legend—"Continued tomorrow." Camel are wide-open for comparison with any cigarette at any price! Most sensitive smokers appreciate the pleasure Camel quality offers. They prefer it to premiums or coupons! Freedom from tongue-bite and throat-parch is as welcome as is the absence of any unpleasant cigarette after-taste!

Camels are blended choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos; you'll prefer their new flavor and mild-smoothness to either kind of tobacco smoked straight! That desirable, satisfying "body" is all there—without any come-back! No matter how many you smoke!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages, 20 for 10c; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine paper-covered carton for $2.00. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply, or when you travel.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

The stamp placed over and under the package, which keeps it dry, thereby preserving the quality of the blended tobacco. By inserting the finger as illustrated, the stamp easily breaks without tearing the tin foil, which folds back into its place.

A Glaring Mistake.

At this time of uneasiness and excitement growing out of the European war it is inevitable that some foolish things should be said and done, and out of all there has come no more fatuous idea than that patriotism and good citizenship can be brought about by compulsion.

But this idea has come to the surface and is gaining ground. Two large manufacturing concerns are demanding "loyalty to the government and flag of the United States" on the part of their employees of foreign birth and will refuse them any advancement in their positions if they decline to take out naturalization papers and become "genuine American citizens." Other employers are contemplating a similar step, which is heartily endorsed by a contemporary in these words: "It begins to look as if the industries of America will be Americanized in the truest sense of the word. It is a wholesome and patriotic movement, and the need of it has been only too apparent. We want no divided allegiance on the part of those that share in our freedom, prosperity, protection and privileges."

An undivided allegiance on the part of people who have come to this country to make their homes is highly desirable, but it can never be secured by compulsion. The danger is that any attempt to hurry and force foreigners into citizenship may defeat the very end it is hoped to attain. What kind of American citizen would be the man who would become naturalized for the sake of holding his job or securing advancement? And are not men who would do this the very kind that we do not want on the rolls of American citizenship?

The kind of foreigners who make good citizens will be induced by the liberties, privileges and opportunities they enjoy here to become citizens. No compulsion will be necessary in their case. The country will not be strengthened by such "allegiance" and "patriotism" as would come from forced naturalization, and whoever imagines that by such a course "the industries of America will be Americanized in the truest sense of the word" is imagining a vain thing.

The United States stands in need of no household citizenship. The natural process of assimilating foreigners is plenty fast enough, and any attempt to hasten it in the manner prescribed will be a serious mistake. It may be possible to make voters in this way, but it will be utterly impossible to thus make good citizens.

Now that a madman has run amuck in Albany, N. Y., and shot a number of persons, one fatally, with a gun equipped with a silencer, a bill has been introduced in the Legislature prohibiting the manufacture and sale of such silencers, except that they may be sold to military or civil organizations. It has been said that "The blood of martyrs is the seed of the church," and so perhaps in this case the blood of the victim may be the seed of a sensible piece of legislation.

The United States Senate is on record as in favor of Philippine independence within four years, but this does not necessarily mean that the independence of the islands will be brought about in so short a time. There are many important questions in connection with that subject, and action must be based upon judgment rather than sentiment.

The fact that the earthquake that jarred Albany, N. Y., and the surrounding region a few nights ago was no more severe is gratifying to all the eastern part of the United States. The people in this part of the country like to believe themselves free from dangers of this character, and even a slight quake is disturbing.

There appears to be a growing sentiment in favor of meeting the cost of preparedness to a considerable extent by heavily taxing the manufacturers of arms and munitions, who are reaping the profits. But perhaps these men will feel that the tax on their incomes would constitute their fair share of the burden.

The war has also caused a shrinkage in the production of radium, which is now worth at the rate of $9,000,000 a pound. But as the output in the United States last year was only six grams, the pound rate will not be of direct interest for some time to come.

A dispatch from Cleveland states that President Wilson may at an early date announce his position with reference to being a candidate for re-election. But isn't that already very generally known?

With President Wilson, many of the Democrats and most of the Republicans shouting for it, the preparedness issue would appear to be very non-partisan indeed.

CHECKING INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT

Demands of Railroad Men for Eight-Hour Day Has Effect on Whole Country.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Demands of railroad employees for higher wages and the general tendency toward the eight-hour work day were depicted as checks upon the development of industry by Howard Elliott, chairman of the Board of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, in a speech tonight before the chamber of commerce of the U. S. He said such demands as those recently made by the four great organizations of railroad men were but steps in a process which, if continued, would raise the cost of living to new heights and finally result in conditions much worse to the disadvantage of labor than of capital. Mr. Elliott's speech came at the close of the first day of the national chamber's fourth annual convention, John H. Mabee of Boston, the president, addressed the opening session this morning, appealing to business men to do some constructive thinking and to become less partisan in dealing with great economic questions.

GRAVE FEARS FOR KING GEORGE

Too Ill to Attend Opening of Parliament—Internal Injuries Feared.

(Special to The Herald) London, Feb. 9.—The official announcement that King George has not recovered sufficiently from his injuries to officiate at the opening of Parliament next Tuesday, gave rise to anxiety and alarming reports today. Following so closely on the statement that the king had recovered, the latest announcement aroused fears that the king suffered internal hurts when he was thrown from his horse on October 28 in France.

GALLINGER GETS REPORT ON RUBLEE

Committee Will Favor Confirmation and Matter Will Be Fought Out on the Floor.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 8.—Senator Gallinger's efforts to force action in the senate on the appointment of George Rublee as a member of the federal trade commission have succeeded so far that it was declared today that the committee in interstate commerce will render a favorable report, this week.

Senator Gallinger will endeavor to defeat his confirmation on the floor. It is reported today on reliable authority that the friends of Gallinger have offered compromise to the Democrats by which the nomination of Louis P. Brandeis for the U. S. supreme court can be confirmed in exchange for an agreement to defeat Rublee. The sole objection to Rublee is that he is personally distasteful to Gallinger and that he is a Progressive instead of a Republican.

Gallinger's friends are reported to have used the threat that when the Republicans again control the senate they will not recognize Democrats in matter of appointments to commissions unless Rublee is defeated.

WOULD TAKE CHARGE OF HAYTI'S FINANCES

If Senate Ratifies Treaty U. S. Will Take Control of That Country.

(Special to The Herald) Washington, Feb. 9.—The senate foreign relations committee today voted unanimously to recommend ratification, establishing a protectorate over the republic of Hayti. The treaty, if ratified, will put the United States in charge of Hayti's financial affairs in much the same manner that this country now supervises the finances of Santo Domingo.

GARMENT MAKERS ON STRIKE

A Complete Tie Up in the Trade Expected.

New York, Feb. 9.—A complete tie-up of the town's garment making industry is threatened, as the result of grievances long standing. It was estimated that more than one hundred thousand workmen failed to show up this morning, and that more than three hundred thousand men and women will have to quit within twenty-four hours.

CURRENT OPINION

True Democracy May Triumph Abroad After War Has Ended.

Emerging from this hopeless, senseless and desperate struggle, the people of Europe will desire democracy as never before. They first brought democracy to us. Shall we now take it back to them?

We shall not, of course, reach the ultimate goal at one bound. A world state modeled after our federal constitution may be a long way off, but a real beginning would be a transcendent achievement. Ex-President Taft's League to Enforce Peace with its modest suggestion of a modified sovereignty, if achieved would be worth centuries of European diplomacy.

If now we arm—as we should—and do only that, we shall show ourselves a nation of ingrates.

If we arm and say to Europe that we are ready at any time to disarm, ready with them to create an international state, a state in which the central authority shall act directly on the people as our federal government does, a state democratically controlled as our Union is, a state in which international questions shall be settled as our interstate questions are, a state in which war would ultimately become as impossible, as unthinkable, as it now is between Massachusetts and New York—we shall at least show ourselves morally to be worthy descendants of the forefathers who signed the declaration of 1776 and of the great democrats who fashioned the charter of our liberties in 1787.

The year's work has been very satisfactory. A registration of 1149 people from a population of 1620 shows that about 75 per cent are patrons of the library; a better record than can be found in many of our New England towns.

M. Louise Foye, Librarian. The town clerk's report for the year is complete and shows 26 births in 1915 during the year, 10 being boys, and sixteen girls. There were eight marriages and thirty-six deaths. The oldest person was Mrs. Sarah A. Scammon, whose age was 92 years, 4 months and 10 days. The youngest was Helen Partridge, aged 5 days.

Miss Marjorie Fernald of Concord visited her home in this town last week.

Charles DeWolf of the River road sustained a slight shock recently.

Newbury Paul of Rosemary had a shock and is now quite ill.

Miss Lucy York has returned from Boston where she has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Powers of several weeks.

J. P. Foster is furloughed from his duties at the navy yard for lack of work.

Frank Wherron has moved his family to Salem, Mass., where they will reside in the future.

Edwin P. Staples has resumed his duties after two weeks' illness.

J. J. Frank York is improving after being sick about two months with muscular rheumatism.

Frank T. Staples has returned to work in the boat shop at the navy yard after a vacation of two weeks.

Charles P. Frost and nephew, Clyde Staples spent Sunday in Lynn, the guest of friends.

TO SPEND $7000 ON SALEM DEPOT

The Boston and Maine railroad will spend between $5,000 and $7,000 for improvements on the Salem depot and attempt to make it a first class station without building a new one.

The move in that direction was made by the company as a result of requests by the mayor, certain organizations and the citizens of the city in general. Every request made to the management has been agreed to and shows that the railroad will do what it can, regardless of financial conditions.

We don't begrudge this to Salem for improvements are needed there if anywhere on the system but we hope

NAVY YARD NOTES

Vessel Movements

The K-1, K13, K15, Tallahassee and Warden at Tampa.

The McLaughlin and Winslow at Guantanamo Bay.

The Montana and Osceola at Guantanamo.

The Saturn at San Francisco.

The Columbia has sailed from Philadelphia for Pensacola.

The Glacier, Hull and Perry from San Diego for Mare Island.

The Leonidas from Grand Cayman for survey grounds.

The South Dakota from San Diego for San Francisco.

The Pittsburgh was placed in reserve at Puget Sound, Washington on Feb. 4.

Naval Orders

Lieut. B. V. Rhodin, the Washington, home, wait orders.

Surgeon R. G. Parker, Tutuila, Samoa to Fleet surgeon, Pacific reserve fleet.

Paymaster R. V. Spear, Norfolk navy yard to the Milwaukee.

Cats' Hiss Commission

Congratulations were numerous today and are being extended to Lieut. Otto C. Dowling, engineer officer in the Industrial Department who has received his commission as lieutenant commander. The promotion is well deserved and his friends in the ranks of the civil force as well as the officers hope the next step to the rank of commander will come along in a short space of time.

Short Stay at Boston

The U. S. S. Washington will put into Boston to dispose of her ammunition on the way north and will sail from there for Portsmouth on February 15.

On Charity Trip

The collier Sterling, once assigned to the Portsmouth yard as home port, has been assigned to transport supplies from this country to the Jewish sufferers in Palestine.

In addition to medicines to be sent by the American Jewish Relief committee, the Sterling will carry 60,000 pounds of mazel, for which funds have been collected by the Hebrew Shelter and Immigrant Aid Society of this city. The vessel is expected to sail from Norfolk on February 16.

Replies to Gallinger

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has officially replied to the request of Senator Gallinger regarding the cost of putting the old frigate Constitution in proper condition to preserve as a historic relic.

Mr. Daniels asked for $150,000 for the purpose and explains what the vessel needs. He states that the $100,000 expended a few years ago was to restore the frigate to its condition when in active service and that a further expenditure of $150,000 would restore it for permanent historic purposes.

Guard Transferred

Private Thomas Howard, a popular member of the marine guard at the yard barracks has been transferred to the New York yard.

The Question of the Topeka

There is much speculation as to what will be done with the U. S. S. Topeka in view of the fact that the navy is not inclined to go to the large expense of refitting the vessel for the Albatross naval mill, and that state will not let her out at its own expense. It looks as if the old prison ship may go back in the service as a transport or some kind of a tender.

Board to Look Her Over

The board of inspection and survey will look over the cruiser Washington a few days after she is tied up at the yard. A great amount of work is necessary on this vessel, according to reports sent by her commander to Washington.

For Other Yards

A shipment of manufactured articles was made today to Boston, New York, Mare Island and other points.

ROLL CALL

Damon Lodge, K. of P., Will Observe Event in Connection With Its 45th Anniversary.

The joint observance of the 45th anniversary and annual roll call of Damon Lodge No. 5, Knights of Pythias, will be held at Pythian hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 22. The program as being arranged by the committee in charge includes the roll call, followed by a buffet lunch and vocal choir. It is very likely that a musical program will also be arranged.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, keep mind and body active, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price, $1.00.

SETTLEMENT OF LUSITANIA CASE ASSURED

U. S. Will Now Take Up Some of the Demands Against England and Her Allies.

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, Feb. 9.—With the settlement of the Lusitania dispute with Germany assured, the administration is prepared to bring to a head many questions which Great Britain and her allies were interested. They include a further and sharper protest against the illegal interference with American mail, a demand that they live up to the original assurance that they live up to the place cotton on the contraband list; a demand that the allies keep their promise that American importers be allowed to bring to this country goods to the value of $1,000,000 in the warehouses of Holland; the state department said that there would not be a move in the Lusitania case until many issues were heard from, although it was stated that the two governments were so much in accord in the final settlement that there was no possibility of any change being made and that the question was practically settled.

OIL BARGE GOES AGROUND

Standard Oil Co. Barge No. 62 Ashore on Bartlett Reef.

(Special to The Herald)

New London, Feb. 9.—The Standard Oil Company barge No. 62, east bound with a captain and crew of several men on board and loaded with several thousand gallons of gasoline, went ashore one half mile west of Bartlett's Reef Lightship, during the thick snowstorm today. She is resting easily, apparently on soft bottom and an attempt will be made to float her at high water.

POTATOES GO UP IN SMOKE

Three Thousand Barrels Destroyed in Fire at Houlton, Me.

(Special to The Herald)

Houlton, Me., Feb. 9.—Three thousand barrels of potatoes were burned when the potato house of L. W. Tompkins was destroyed by fire today. The loss was over $10,000.

"A PAIR OF SIXES"

The Portsmouth Theatre will have a noteworthy attraction next week in a "Pair of Sixes," the farce which ran for almost a year at the Longacre Theatre, New York, and which excited a future of fun and praise that has never been exceeded in the history of metropolitan theatres. In what has been termed "our national indoor game," "A Pair of Sixes" is not considered much of a hand, but the farce arranged by the author, Edward Peple, backed by a Queen of Hearts, has created a furore that has been declared a royal flush in the matter of fun. It has proven to be the biggest farce winner in the history of the English speaking stage and the success which it has won in New York has been duplicated in Chicago and all other cities where it has been presented. It has been received everywhere with praise, whose expression has been entirely in the superlative.

The story deals with the fortunes of two partners in the pill manufacturing business. Each claims to be the head and the brains of the enterprise. After much squabbling they agree to disagree and through the services of their attorney decide to settle the dispute as to who shall be the head of the firm, by playing a show down hand of poker. "A Pair of Sixes" wins. By the terms of the contract, the losing partner becomes the other man's servant for a period of one year. The latter is installed as butler in the winning partner's household, where his position is made the more embarrassing by the efforts of a funny Cockney servant, who makes violent love to him and is determined to capture him as a husband. It is to the complications of his position, his sweetheart arrives, as a guest in the household. He is unable to explain to her his presence as a manly for fear of sacrificing his share in the business by divulging the secret agreement which he has made with his partner. The enthralling situation creates not only of amusing situations and the millions fun moves along with the speediest action until his clever little fiancée works out the means of his escape.

RAILROAD NOTES

Labor leaders say that a movement is under way to bring about concerted action of members of the four great unions of railway employees and of the United Mine Workers in their demands for increased wages and shorter working days. It is stated that if this plan were put into effect it would bring about combined action by 750,000 men and affect the mining fields of Pennsylvania, Colorado and the South.

The movement is said to have the approval of W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen and of W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, while it is reported that John T. White, president of the United Mine Workers, has disapproved the proposed coalition.

The office of Ralph T. Damon, chairman of the Boston and Maine road, was removed from Concord to Boston on Monday.

As soon as the weather will permit, the Portsmouth Electric railway section crew will begin the filling in of the trestle at Little Boat's Head and Rye Beach on the main line.

The rush of freight over the Boston and Maine road is commencing to slow up, although the embargo is still maintained on all classes of freight. Only grain, perishables and steel billets have a clear way. By reason of the arrival of a number of steamers in Boston, the employees are commencing to flow back west.

Frank Tate, station agent at Wolfboro for the B. and M., left today for a two months' vacation in Florida. During his absence, his assistant Irving Tollins will act as agent.

The Boston and Maine is filling in with ashes along the shore of the North Mill Pond where more yard trucks will be put in.

AN APPEAL TO SAVE WORLD'S MARKETS

Edward A. Filene Tells National Chamber of Commerce of Need of World Court.

Washington, Feb. 8.—An appeal for Pan-Americanism to combat the efforts of the European powers to capture the world's market, was made to the thousand odd business men attending the Chamber of Commerce convention here today, by Edward A. Filene of Boston. "The European war will be followed by a race among the world powers to capture markets that will take the form of the most destructive competition the world has ever seen," declared Mr. Filene. "The reaction on American commerce will be sudden and menacing." Mr. Filene proposed that the United States take the initiative in the formation of an international court, supported by a league of nations, agreeing to use concerted force and if necessary military force, against any nation refusing to submit controversies to the tribunal to arbitrate. He declared that chambers of commerce all over the country had declared in favor of this plan.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea; with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair, beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome, an easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

CLAIMS RIGHT TO REMAIN INDEFINITELY

Germans Will Be in No Hurry to Move the Appam.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Germany contends that the British liner Appam, brought to Hampton Roads by a German prize crew, is entitled, under the terms of the Prussian-American treaty to remain in American waters indefinitely, and in support of her position Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, today presented to Secretary Lansing a formal communication on behalf of the Berlin foreign office.

The United States practically has decided that the treaty guarantees the ship to the Germans as a prize, as against the British contention that The Hague convention guarantees her return to her British owners, but it has not decided how long she shall be permitted to remain in American waters.

To accept the German contention would mean that the Appam would be permitted to remain until the end of the war. To compel her departure would mean sure capture by the Allied cruisers outside the Virginia capes.

OBSEQUIES

Mrs. Lucinda A. Hayes

The funeral services of Mrs. Lucinda A. Hayes were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard T. Spence on Jones avenue, Kittery on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. L. H. FORTUNE OF $79,000 FOR MRS. MOHR

Officially Announced by Attorneys Who Have Been In Conference to Settle Husband's Estate.—
Attorney Lewis to Ask New Trial For Convicted Negroes

WHAT MRS. MOHR WILL GET OUT OF HUSBAND'S ESTATE

	Total Mrs. Mohr's value share

Newport estate.....	75,000 20,000.00
Elmwood house, Pro- vidence.....	15,000 10,000.00
Parcels of land in Pro- vidence.....	13,000 8,666.65
Total.....	$131,000 70,000.00

Providence, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Elizabeth Frances Mohr will receive $79,000 out of her husband's estate. This was officially stated today by attorneys who have been in constant conference to settle the affairs of the widow without litigation.

Mrs. Mohr will receive one-third of all of the late Dr. C. Franklin Mohr's personal property, which amounts to $31,000. She will receive two-thirds of his Newport estate, valued at $75,000; two-thirds of the Elmwood property, valued at $15,000 and two-thirds of all other property of the murdered physician scattered in and around Providence. This is valued at $13,000.

Speaking of the statements that Mrs. Mohr has been left destitute, Attorney Arthur Cushing, her attorney, said:

"There is only one thing to be said about such statements—lies. Anyone who is curious can look up the records of the value of the estate as filed in the city halls at Providence and Newport. The personal property has been appraised and the value accepted by the court.

"Mrs. Mohr has received a preliminary widow's allowance of $5,000. Her son, Charlie, has received $10,000 on his father's insurance policy, which Dr. Mohr made out in favor of the little fellow. Philip Knauer and myself have worked out a satisfactory agreement, one that is acceptable to Mrs. Mohr, C. Manning Mohr and Mrs. Adele Marr, the other heirs."

C. Manning Mohr and Mrs. Adele Marr are the children of Dr. Mohr by his first wife. They are represented by Attorney Joseph Roycroft of Baltimore, who has been attending the conference for the past few days relative to the settling of the estate. Before leaving for Baltimore he said that his clients would be satisfied with the plan worked out, and that it would be necessary to take the matter into the courts.

Mrs. Mohr has selected all the effects she desires from the personal estate, taking the monogrammed silverware, her favorite piano, and several antiques. C. Manning Mohr has taken all of his father's suits, forty in number, one hundred pairs of shoes, a dozen riding habits, 60 canes and a score of hats.

William H. Lewis, the Boston attorney who defended Cecil Victor Brown on the charge of murdering Dr. Mohr, announced today that he would take an appeal on Friday of the jury's verdict of guilty. He said:

"This will be another Leo Frank case. All the negro societies of Boston and Providence have promised to rally to the aid of Brown and Henry Spellman, who have unjustly been found guilty of crime.

"As soon as our campaign for funds is started I know that the colored race throughout the country will come to the aid of the two unfortunate boys.

"I do not know just how much an appeal will cost, but I understand it will approximate $1,000. Not one penny of Mrs. Mohr's money has been used to defend either Brown or Spellman.

"Attorney General Rice said that the entire Mohr estate was behind our defense, but the learned Attorney General was grossly unfair in this respect. I made thirteen trips to Providence and started the defense at the trial on the receipt of $3 from Mrs. Louise Brown, wife of the accused man.

"Our race will not allow color to cost the liberty of these two boys, and I am confident that we can get an unlimited amount of money to fight this verdict."

This is the first official statement made by Attorney Lewis relative to his position in the matter. It will mean that any possible action that Attorney General Herbert A. Ideo may take against Mrs. Elizabeth Frances Mohr on the indictment of inciting the assault on Miss Emily G. Burger will be postponed for many months to come.

It has been admitted by one of the members of the Attorney-General's office that it would be impossible to try Mrs. Mohr on the minor indictment unless new evidence was secured. It was the hope of Attorney General Rice that Spellman would turn state's evidence, but in appeal by the lawyers for the two boys will make this impossible.

BOSTON LETTER

Rev. Frederick E. Heath in a sermon on "What's the Matter with Boston," said: "The religion of Boston today is spasmoid and emotional; what we need is not finer buildings nor better streets, but a solid religion among all the people. If Christ came to Boston today he would see a beautiful city in appearance, but degeneration within. He would see the enormity of our social evil and would say: 'You wicked sepulchre! He would see the pockets of politicians budding with money and would say it was a city of graft.' He said there was more need for plain clothes men on our streets to guard against the 'human vampires' who

OTTAWA'S PARLIAMENT BUILDING FIRE COST LEGISLATORS THEIR MEETING PLACES

In the fire which destroyed seven lives and did damage estimated at $3,000,000 to the parliament building in Ottawa, Canada, the house and the senate chambers suffered most. The two chambers, the offices of auxiliary departments, the living rooms of the speaker, the smoking rooms and rest rooms of government and opposition, the committee rooms and the rooms assigned to the personal use of the more prominent members were destroyed. Only the press room and the common restaurant, which are in the new west wing, escaped.

providing about in almost every section of the city."

Greater Boston passed through a year of unusual poverty, according to the 36th annual report of the Associated Charities of Boston. Just made public. The families who were assisted by some form of friendly service, or for whom relief was procured, numbered 4817, representing at least 15,000 different individuals. This is the largest number aided by the organization in many years. Among the groups where the workers of the society found the largest amount of unemployment were building and construction workers, teamsters, freight handlers, longshoremen, employees in the hotel and restaurant trades and tailors.

The Convention Bureau of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, together with local members of the National Association of Transportation and Car-Accompanying Officers, have succeeded in having Boston selected as the convention city of that organization, June 20 to 25, 1916. The association is made up of 500 representatives of 253 railroads.

The Federal authorities will be asked to co-operate with Massachusetts in the extermination of the "white pine blister rust" which has just made its appearance in this state. A bill asking Congress for a $50,000 appropriation was drawn up by a local committee and given to Senator Ballinger for presentation in Congress.

Two hundred and sixty-five town and district notes, aggregating in amount $1,036,304.50, were cancelled and returned to the local treasurers without certification during the year 1915, according to a statement made public by Director Charles H. Gettemy of the State Bureau of Statistics. Director Gettemy says these notes were not certified because of irregularities in form or because the proposed loans were not in compliance with the municipal indebtedness laws of the Commonwealth. The total number of notes certified by the state department was

FOOD FACTS. What an M. D. Learned.

A prominent physician down in Georgia went through a food experience which he makes public:

"It was my own experience that first led me to advocate Grape-Nuts food; and I also know from having prescribed it to convalescents and other weak patients that this food is a wonderful builder and restorer of nerve and brain tissue, as well as muscle. It improves the digestion and puts on gain, just as I did in strength and weight, very rapidly.

"I was in such a low state that I had to give up my work entirely and go to the mountains, but two months there did not improve me; in fact I was not quite as well as when I left home. My food did not sustain me and it became plain that I must change.

"I began to use Grape-Nuts and in two weeks I could walk a mile, and in five weeks returned to my home and practice, taking up hard work again. Since that time I have felt as well and strong as I ever did in my life.

"As a physician who seeks to help all sufferers I consider it a duty to make these facts public."

Tried 10 days on Grape-Nuts when the regular food does not seem to sustain the body will work wonders.

The joint legislative committee on public institutions is soon to make a tour of practically all the state hospitals and institutions. It has not been announced when the tour will start but according to the program the members of the committee will visit the Grafton State Hospital, the Northampton State Hospital, the Westboro State Hospital, the Rutland State Sanatorium, the Westfield State Sanatorium, the Industrial School for Girls at Lancaster, the Industrial School for Boys at Shirley, the Lyman School for Boys at Westboro, the Concord Reformatory, the Prison Camp and Hospital at Rutland, the Women's Reformatory at Sherborn, the State Prison at Charlestown, the Hospital School at Canton, the Norfolk State Hospital and the Lakeville State Sanatorium.

SAYS ALLIES DESPISE US

Richard Harding Davis Tells How Wilson's Portrait is Hissed in London—Bryan and Ford Considered Typical.

Other voyagers from Europe have said that Americans are unpopular in France and England, but Richard Harding Davis, author and war correspondent, raised the statement to the last degree of emphasis yesterday when he arrived on the White Star liner Baltic.

"They don't hate us—they save that for the Germans. They despise us," he said.

"In England the recruiting stations have big signs in front of them reading: 'All Men Who Are Not Too Proud to Fight.' Better Here! At the Coliseum Theatre in London one night I saw pictures of the rulers of various countries flashed on the screen. When Wilson's portrait appeared there was a solid hiss from the whole audience.

"They hold that the United States has needily suffered all the indignities of Germany's submarine outrages and has spent her time protesting indignantly against the action. They believe also that we are false friends. You know, the French army found that when they bought shells from American manufacturers a number of them fell about 500 yards from the mouth of the gun. They bought shells from us made of paper. The French have no idea that we are trying to make money out of their misfortune.

"Our gifts to Belgium? Of course they appreciate such things. But you must remember that we have not done such a great deal. All we have sent a Belgium would not have fed the country for seven weeks. France and England have done the rest. And what we have sent over has come from people of moderate means in this country.

"The big men, those who are making millions out of the war, are giving nothing. They may give a few dollars when they are asked, but not in any proportion to the fortunes they are reaping. I know that the head of one of the French committees recently petitioned about twelve of the biggest men in this country to give some share of their war fortunes to help the sufferers. I was told that not only were there no results, but not a letter was acknowledged.

"The trouble is that they cannot understand that what the Administration does is not what the average American can be held for. We could not think of entrusting all Frenchmen because of something M. Cailhau does, but over there because the Administration has lost their respect, they despise the entire country," Bryan and Ford are considered typical, and they have done more to make peace impossible and the very name of it hateful than anything else."

SAYS BODY IS A POISON FACTORY

Urges everyone to drink glass of hot water before breakfast.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of insoluble material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and atom-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

LATE WAR BULLETINS

Rome, Feb. 8.—Speedy British and French cruisers are scouring the Mediterranean and the East Atlantic seas for German submarine bases and German commerce raiders. A large amount of provisions and oil have been confiscated on islands in the Cretean archipelago. Landing parties of British and French sailors have been put ashore at numerous points.

London, Feb. 8.—British military authorities have no intention of withdrawing from Kut-el-Amara, says a Reuters dispatch from Delhi, India. According to Turkish claims the British army of General Townshend is surrounded, but the Delhi dispatch indicates that the railroad along the Tigris river is open.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions, it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure, and above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

GINGLES' JINGLES

A Man

Are you playing your part in the way that you should? Are you boasting for good? Are you what you should be as a man? Can you face a calamity calmly and smile? Have you learned to be patient and brave? Are you adding each day to the record on file, memorandums you're proud you can save? Can you say, "Though I've failed, I shall rise from the crash determined to stick and to win; although I have lost my last dollar in cash, and must at the bottom begin, I'll face my reverses, I'll never give up. I'll show in a pinch I am there, though misery and bitterness fill my cup—I'll turn to the finish, but fair?" Have you turned from the darkness and facing the sun, showed us you are sure that "you can?" Have you fought a good fight? Have you conquered and won? Have you proved to the world you're a man?

STUDENTS' PARADE STOPPED.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 8.—Gloom, dark as the prospects of a Latin exam, settled over Mercer University and Wesleyan Female College today as the result of an edict issued by both institutions repealing the most ancient and highly prized privilege of the students. Henceforth the daily parade of Mercer swains before the college damsels must cease. Arrest faces the youth who violates the edict.

The daily parade of the Mercers by the girls' college is as old as the institution and the students are bitter against the infringement upon their privileges.

Here's hoping that the Lusitania case will now be settled once and for all.

ARMOR MAKERS TO FIGHT U. S.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Battle ship construction may be dealt a serious blow if the Tillman bill for a Government armor plate, reported today by the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, becomes a law. The original bill appropriated eleven million dollars for the construction of a plant. The committee inserted an alternative proposition authorizing the erection or the purchase by the Government of an armor plant with an annual capacity of not less than twenty thousand tons (the total capacity of existing private armor plants is thirty-two thousand tons or greater than the annual purchases of the Government ever have amounted to. If the bill is enacted, and the managers of private plants make good their threat to retire from the business their first step naturally will be to increase the price of plate to the Government sufficiently, if possible, to recoup themselves for their outlay upon establishments which Government competition would render useless. It is estimated that a Government plant cannot be established within four years, or at least made effective within that time. Meantime the navy will be dependent upon the Bethlehem Steel, Midvale and Carnegie companies for its plate for battleships, and must either go without this indispensable equipment or pay such prices as the makers may choose to charge. The idea advanced in the committee that patriotic steel men will lead the steel men to deal "fairly" with the Government during the transition period will not, it is believed, be taken seriously in business circles, where it is pointed out that it is the duty of the managers of these properties to protect the investments in their care and that they would be more than human should they assist the Government at their own expense to institute a system whose most important operation will be to put them out of business. The Naval Committee has likely ordered the Tillman bill reported without heed to the argument that it thereby has confronted the Navy Department with the possibility of being unable to secure armor plate with which to sheathe the sides of its dreadnoughts.

Private armor plate manufacturers notified the Senate committee today that they would raise the price of armor plate $200 a ton if Congress decides to erect or purchase armor plate factories for the Government.

The committee voted, nevertheless, 9 to 3 to report favorably Senator Tillman's bill to authorize the Secretary of the Navy to provide either by erection or purchase of an armor plate factory, or both, with capacity of not less than 20,000 tons or armor a year. The bill would appropriate $11,000,000. Senators Penrose, Lodge and Smith of Michigan, Republicans, voted against reported the bill.

Chairman Tillman and Senators Swanson, Bryan, Johnson (Maine), Chilton, Phelan and Pittman, Democrats, and Clapp and Polindexter, Republicans, voted for it.

"The threat of the armor barons to hold up the Government will not affect Congress," said Senator Tillman. "We were given to understand that the armor manufacturers would increase their price because Government manufacture of armor plate would force them to go out of that business and they would charge this enormous increase in order to provide themselves with an amortization fund. But I guess we can find a way to stop the robbers. In time of trouble we could seize their plants and operate them by right of eminent domain."

Climate Failed; Medicine Effective

Sufferers from tuberculosis often think that medicine will not help them. There is regular, reliable and good food aid in restoring health, but more is often needed. Many have been restored to health by Eckman's Alternative. Read this:

Weldon, Ill. "Gentlemen—Through your assistance I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Tuberculosis (bacilli were found). In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, to later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Thereafter I later returned home, weighing 100 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Now I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator. (Abbreviated). Wm. Eckman's Alternative is the most efficacious in bronchial, catarrh, and severe, thickened lung, affections and in building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. ITALY MAY INCREASE HER ACTIVITY IN WAR

London, Feb. 8.—Premier Briand's visit to Rome may have important results. It is quite likely that Italy is to be urged strongly to come fully into the war on the side of the Allies if she is "to increase the advantage she is to reap." There has been much mystery over the action of Italy. In confining herself so closely to the Austrian frontier and not declaring war on Germany she could have been a deciding factor in the saving of Serbia from the Austro-German heel, but apparently looked on the conquest of Serbia and Montenegro with comparative indifference. Serbian ambition to reach the Adriatic interfered with her designs on Albania. The other day Berlin announced through its official news agency that Italy was war tired, the implication being that a separate peace was possible. However, Italy has announced her adherence to the London agreement not to make a separate peace, so this would not appear to be the reason for Briand's visit. An apologist's explanation of Italy's attitude in the war says it has been misunderstood or misinterpreted. Italy did not want to go into war. She had just come out of a costly one in Africa. Then, after a long struggle, she was cementing a real sentiment of union among her people. Much has been said of her manner of going into the war. It has been said that she was apparently trying to see whether Germany or the Allies would pay the most for her services. Nothing could be more untrue, says this explanation. In respect to her treaty with Germany, it was not a love affair, but one to preserve the peace of Europe. Germany did not ask her consent to go to war, knowing that Italy would immediately try to stop the war. The reason Italy did go into the war was not because of the promise of pay from the Allies, but reluctantly, as a matter of national defence. While there did not exist a hard feeling between the Germans and Italians, there has long been one between the Italians and Austrians. The frontier between these latter countries was such that at any time the Austrians could invade Italy, and Italy could in such case defend herself only with difficulty, a difficulty that is proved by the energy required in the present war.

French Gain Then Lose

Berlin, by wireless to Sayville, Feb. 8.—Active fighting on the French front south of the River Somme was announced today by German army headquarters. In the course of the engagement, the Germans lost a small section of one of the trenches they had conquered, but afterwards retaken the position by a counter-attack. The main attack by the French, which had been prepared for by heavy artillery fire, was repulsed, the announcement states.

An attack by a German air squadron on the railroad station at Poperinghe, Belgium and on British camps between Poperinghe and Dismude, is reported in the official bulletin. The German airman had several combats with hostile aeroplanes but returned without having suffered any losses.

The official statement says: "There was lively artillery activity to the south of the River Somme. During the night of Feb. 6-7, a small trench section in our new positions was lost. A French attack delivered yesterday afternoon, for which the enemy had prepared by strong artillery fire, was repulsed. During the evening a counter attack put us in full possession of our position."

A German aeroplane squadron attacked the camp at Poperinghe and Dismude. After frequent fights with enemy aeroplanes which ascended to defend the camps, our squadron returned without loss.

"Eastern and Balkan theatre: There is nothing to report."

Blast German Lines

Paris, via London, Feb. 8.—The following official communication was issued by the War Office:

"In Belgium our artillery effectively bombarded the small Vauban fort near Hat Sas and the enemy trenches in front of Steenstraete."

"In Artois the fire of our batteries caused powerful explosions in the German lines near St. Laurent, northeast of Arras. Between the Gas and the Alsne an enemy blockhouse was destroyed at La Lisiere, south of the Bois d'Ourscamp."

"In Champagne a bombardment by our heavy artillery of the enemy establishments near Chateaufort caused a great fire."

"There has been reciprocal cannonading on the rest of the front."

The following statement was given out this afternoon at the War Office: "South of the Somme, between Lys and Chaulmieu our artillery cannonaded a train."

"In the Argonne we exploded a small mine at St. Hubert and three mines at Vauquois."

"Over the rest of the front the night was calm."

Put Germans to Flight

Petrograd, via London, Feb. 8.—The following official communication from general headquarters was issued: "In the Riga region there was a heavy artillery duel. We successfully shelled enemy guns and working parties. In the region of Jacobstadt there was a successful reconnaissance along the Houssey River beyond the enemy's entanglements, putting the Germans to flight. On the right wing of the Dvinsk positions a German armoured motor car was struck by a shell and destroyed."

"The Germans fired big shells on the railway station at Lixna, north of Dvinsk."

"We have established beyond doubt that the Germans are using our distinctive signs on their aircraft."

"In one section of General Letichikovsky's line, north of Bofana (Bukovina) we exploded a mine under the enemy's trench entanglements. The explosion wrecked the trenches and damaged the entanglements. Directly afterwards our men advanced to the attack and captured the crater, from which by a plentiful use of bombs they got into the enemy trenches, where they found numerous bodies."

"In the same region, Corporal Giouschenko, who is in reality a girl named Tcherinavik, and who volunteered for scouting duty, got through the enemy's entanglements and, despite a serious wound in the leg and the fracture of a bone, accomplished her object and returned to our trenches."

Russia Well Armed Now

Paris, Feb. 8.—"Russia's munitions crisis is now a thing of the past," said General Polivanoff, Russian minister of war, in an interview with Lodovico Naudou, the special correspondent of the Paris Journal in Russia. "It is an unpleasant memory but, fortunately, only a memory," said General Polivanoff.

"With regard to the troops," the minister continued, "their spirit is excellent, thanks to the system of mobilization by masses which was put into force a few months ago; and to the doubling of the number of supply depots. At the present time we have a permanent reserve of young recruits large enough to enable us to keep all the units up to their full strength, without having to send to the front, half-trained men. This is of great importance, for it has been observed that the morale of the soldier is apt to deteriorate when he sees his company, which originally had 250 or 300 men, reduced to a few dozen."

SAY B. & M. MADE $4,000,000 IN LAST 16 MONTHS

Boston, Feb. 8.—A glowing picture of an ever-increasing prosperity which has put the Boston & Maine on a paying basis and has re-established its credit was painted before the Railroads Committee at the State House today by Attorney Conrad W. Crocker, who appeared in behalf of 350 minority stockholders who desire a repeal of the reorganization bill of last year.

"A year ago at this time, when the reorganization bill was passed, the road was bankrupt, and its economic organization was unsound," said Mr. Crocker, "but the times have changed. The Boston & Maine railroad has earned $4,000,000 in the last sixteen months and has materially reduced its indebtedness. This is not a spasmodic or temporary prosperity, I have the statement of Mr. Edmund Codman, former president of the Fitchburg railroad, who is an authority on railroad matters, that but 2 per cent of this increase is due to the spotted prosperity of war times."

"As business has increased so has the credit of the Boston & Maine become better. It is reasonable to assume that little or no difficulty will be encountered in extending the notes which fall due on March 2."

Mr. Crocker said that the minority holders fear reorganization.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

OUR NAVY'S NEEDS

Wash., Feb. 8.—The greatest need of the navy, Admiral Blue said, is a reserve of trained men. The French navy, apparently on par with ours, has a reserve of about 30,000 men, he declared, while the American navy has a total reserve of 303.

In addition to the lack of reserve, the American navy has from 50 per cent to 100 per cent less officers than the navies of Japan, Germany and France, the admiral stated. The shortage of men and officers, it was brought out by Rep. Britten of Chicago, would make it impossible to mobilize the American navy on a war footing.

Britten declared that a year and a half ago the general board suggested to the navy department that in view of the war abroad, the navy should be put on a war footing, to be ready for an emergency. Chairman Padgett interjected, and forbade Admiral Blue to make any comment, as it would bear on "the delicate foreign situation."

Admiral Blue went on record in favor of anti-aircraft guns as an essential defensive weapon.

Not much stirring along the water front.

Fish of all kinds at Clark's Branch, Tel. 111.

The weather man is acting very mysteriously.

Box 3 of the fire alarm system is out of commission.

Pitroff has the best of the guessing as to "how he does it."

The ice man can hardly tell when to start cutting his crop.

Upholstering: hair mattresses renovated. Margeson Bros. Tel. 570.

Portsmouth is doing a great freight business for the Boston and Maine.

The Crescent A. C. basketball team should have remained in the local league.

The comic variety of Valentines are not getting the attention as in former years.

Canned peas and canned peaches have been selling extra cheap the past winter.

Members of the fire department did a good job at the Vaughan street blaze on Tuesday morning.

Lobsters and fish of all kinds caught by our own boats, fresh every day. E. Jameson and Sons, Tel. 245.

The Country Club is to hold a series of dancing assemblies for the members shortly after the Charity Ball.

The Teachers' Association is to hold an entertainment at the Assembly hall, High school building, this evening.

The bids for the new home for the enlisted men of the army and navy will soon be put up to the contractors.

Splitting Wedges and Mails Brown Tall Mott Cutters.

At E. C. Matthews H'dw. & Paint Co. 41 Pleasant St., Opp. Postoffice.

The finance committee of the city council will be called together this week for their first meeting. Mayor Jadd is getting in the estimates from the various departments.

The Colonial Theatre is to have a diving girls act the last three days of the week. It is a clever act and the young ladies are all graceful and wonderfully skilled in diving.

The rifle range at the new armory has not been fitted out as yet. This will be done by order of the Adjutant General and plans are being arranged now for the installation of a modern range.

The Elks feel much elated over the acceptance by Governor Spaulding of the invitation to attend the Charity Ball. This is the first invitation he has accepted this winter. He will be accompanied by his staff.

Representative Carey of Wisconsin wants the national capital moved from Washington to Milwaukee, as he fears that the "dread" will force the District of Columbia dry, which he considers would be a national calamity.

The tops of the cars on the early morning train from Sunnyside were well covered with snow on Wednesday morning and it was reported that between six and seven inches of snow fell during the night in that section.

About a dozen members of Constitution Lodge, No. 55, Knights of Pythias of Ritters, headed by D. G. C. Mark W. Keene and Chancellor Commander George Mary, attended the meeting of Damon Lodge, No. 2, on Tuesday evening and witnessed the conferring of the rank of Esquire on three candidates.

The horse attached to the delivery wagon of Joseph Sacco, slipped on the ice on Vaughan street, near the junction of School street about 4.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and fell down. The drivers of several other teams nearby rendered timely assistance, the animal being unharnessed and placed on his feet within a short time. No damage was done to either the animal or the harness.

Feb. 8 will be remembered by the members of the fire department as a busy day.

WANTED—Work by the day or hour, or plain sewing to be taken at home. Mrs. C. B. Fernald, 148 Hanover St. Tel. 111.

The new revolver range at city hall is giving the police a fine opportunity to get in some practice with their service revolvers.

Some of the teams in the Elks' Charity ball ticket selling contest are making great returns and some new records for tickets are being made.

The gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waid to the Lafayette school will add much to the beauty of the building and are gifts of a sensible nature as well.

The Naval band will render a special musical program at the War Relief meeting at the Colonial Theatre on Sunday afternoon. The meeting will be for the Serbian relief fund.

Officer Frank H. West has returned to duty after several weeks' illness and he will for a time break in on the police auto. Officer Smart will be given street work for a time.

The advance sale for the comedy farce, "A Pair of Sixes," now on at the Portsmouth Theatre box office and it will be well to make your reservations early. It is an excellent comedy and one of the brightest comedies ever produced.

Tease, one of the first string forwards, and Hutchinson, who is rushing Captain Reeder hard for his position at center, will be in the Portsmouth line-up against the Portsmouth Quintet at the basketball game Washington's Birthday night.

A. M. Braddon of York has entered the big egg contest that has been going the rounds through the Boston Globe. His offering from one of his hens was an egg measuring 8x6 1-2 inches and weighing four ounces. This egg gives him a tie for fourth place in the contest.

Charles Chaplin flew into New York the other day and he is dicker for a new contract for the coming year on a percentage basis. The New York Herald states that it does not mention the figures under consideration, for fear that the same might be taken for a new war loan.

The new order of the board of instruction in regard to the no-school signal on stormy days is a good one. It means that the schools will be open on every school day to the children. It is estimated that even with the most severe storm, more than half the scholars would be present and it will give the teachers time for special work with the scholars.

The Eight-Cylinder Cadillac is the only car in the world which has demonstrated the efficiency of its high speed, high efficiency V-type engine. It is more than a year away—many thousands of cars away from the last element of experiment.

Do you know of any other V-type engine which has proven itself to be removed from the period of doubt?

The application of the First Company, Coast Artillery, to the board of instruction for the use of the gymnasium apparatus in the Widdle school, recalls the apparatus which was in the old Haven gymnasium. It was loaned many years ago and has entirely disappeared. This apparatus should be used for the scholars, but under the existing law which forbids the use of a third story in a school building without fire escapes, the Widdle and Farragut schools are barred from the use of the splendid rooms in both buildings.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Strong Wind Blows Man Off Train Near Hampton.

Passengers on the 4.51 p. m. train from this city to Boston on Monday afternoon will not forget in a hurry the scene they witnessed and the narrow escape from death of a man on his way from Rochester to Boston.

While the train was moving along at a good rate of speed between Hampton and Hampton Falls, this man who was in the smoking car attempted to pass to the next car to join his wife. A strong wind was blowing across the marshes at the time and he had hardly closed the door of the smoking car behind him when the strong current of air swept him bodily from the platform across the outward main line to the side of the roadbed.

Passengers grew frantic and rushed to Conductor Batchelder to notify him of the accident. The air brake was applied as quickly as possible and the train brought to a stop quite a distance from the point where the accident occurred.

The train crew, with a stretcher, hurried back expecting to pick up the remains of a corpse and get the surprise of their lives when they found him standing on the side of the track hunting around for his hat which which became lost in his unexpected flight from the fast moving train.

The only injury he presented was a small cut on his forehead. He was able to walk along to the standing train.

A peculiar thing in connection with the accident was the fact that he had been ill for eight or ten weeks with rheumatism which appeared to have completely left him as a result of the accident.

While the crew of the passenger train was on the hunt for the supposed dead man, it was necessary to hold up an east bound freight which came along on the opposite track.

The wife of the man was frantic when she learned of the accident to her husband, but like the trainmen, got the surprise of her life when she saw him hiking back to the train where she clasped him safely in her arms while the tears quickly disappeared from her face.

A doctor from the navy yard who was on the train at the time, gave what assistance he could to the man.

AT BENFIELD'S.

Each afternoon this week a free demonstration of Jelke's Good Luck Oleomargarine, a widely advertised, pure food product, and a favorite among users. You can't buy a better substitute for butter. One trial will convince you. Be sure to try Jelke's product at our store and take home a pound to convince your family. Free coloring with each pound bought.

Also a shipment of Drake's ten-cent cakes in packages to arrive Thursday. We have not carried these ten-cent cakes before but they will be up to the standard of our pound cakes, with the advantage of being in a sanitary package, thus eliminating the cutting and handling at the store. Let us send one with your order. Tel. 177 and 947M.

Coming—Douglas Fairbanks in "Double Trouble."

will give an address. There will also be other interesting features connected with this evening's work.

THE HERALD HEARS

That a Somersworth youth who startled the town by the free use of a 38-calibre revolver, admits that he has been smoking six boxes of cigarettes a day. Cause enough for most anything in the freak line.

That a man named Kemp at Nashua whose life has been in great danger for the past ten days as the result of an attack of hemorrhoids is improving and his life was saved by drinking pineapple juice.

That he tried many remedies but this was the only effective one.

That it is safe to bet that grape juice was one of the recommended remedies.

That gasoline jumped to 21 cents per gallon on Tuesday.

That a joyride will cost something this summer if it keeps going up.

That a party of six young men were seen quietly holding a whispered conversation near Market Square on Tuesday evening.

That the expressions on their faces and their movements indicated they were decidedly anxious.

That they certainly were filled with much anxiety and have not yet recovered from the blow.

That they had arranged with six queens for a nice sleighride in the surrounding country.

That the James, it seems put one over on them and failed to appear for the winter outing.

That they have not as yet received any cards from their lady friends as to why the non-appearance.

That the boys say they cannot understand why they got the corner-stone but they don't care if some of the club members did not steal the dear girls away from them.

That a cook in the kitchen is worth 25 in the employment agency.

That the execution of Oscar Conery for the murder of his wife, will occur at Concord on Friday, February 25.

That he will be the first person to be hanged in this state since Almy was put to death for the murder of Charlotte Warden, 21 years ago.

COLONIAL THEATRE

Home of Refined Vaudeville. Safety and Quality First.

Three fine acts that both entertain and amuse are on our bill for the last time tonight. Before a large and mystified audience last evening, the great Pitroff freed himself from the big murderer's belt, with which he had been fastened by U. S. Marines. He performs many other mystifying tricks which are well worth witnessing.

Frank Churchill, the singing comedian is bound to make you laugh. You couldn't help it, even if you didn't want to. And Francis and Wilson are the cleverest acrobatic pair even seen in the city. You never know what they're going to do next. They are certainly a live couple, and always on the jump. They have a lot of clever comedy too.

Pictures for Wednesday and Thursday

"The War of Wealth," 3 part Biograph drama. This impressive drama of Wall Street centers about the love of a financier for a girl who has been betrayed by his partner. Driven to desperation by financial losses, the partner plans to rob the bank. After the looting there is a run on the bank, which is finally saved by the 11th hour arrival of cash expressed from Philadelphia. The picture is replete with sensational and spectacular scenes.

"The Merry Models," Barnum comedy.

"The Prince in Disguise," Vitaphone comedy, featuring little Bobbie Comole.

MARCY TRANSFERRED TO DUTY IN MAINE

Field Deputy on Income Tax Shifted From This State.

George D. Marcy, a field deputy connected with the office of internal revenue as income tax agent, has been transferred temporarily to duty in Maine.

Since his appointment, his work has been confined in New Hampshire only.

CAMP MEETING SPECIALS.

Tonight Rev. W. M. Forgrave will be the special speaker at the in-door campmeeting in the Salvation Army hall, State street, 8 o'clock. Thursday, Capt. F. Malpas of Boston. Saturday night, and Sunday, Mr. David Reid, superintendent of the "Hope Mission," Boston. Everybody welcome.

OBSERVED GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harriman of East Rochester observed their golden wedding on Tuesday. They were married in this city by Rev. Adoniram J. Patterson, who was at that time pastor of the Universalist church. They have two daughters, three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

PITROFF ESCAPED IN FOUR MINUTES

FREED HIMSELF FROM NAVAL MURDERER'S BELT IN FULL VIEW OF THE AUDIENCE AT THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Before a capacity house last evening at the Colonial Theatre the great Pitroff, after four minutes of hard work, succeeded in freeing himself from the famous Naval Murderer's belt which had been placed upon him by a committee of four members of the U. S. M. C. Mr. Pitroff accomplished this feat in full view of the audience and did not make use of his cabinet as is his custom under ordinary circumstances. This was one of the conditions made by the boys when they issued their challenge to him.

The entire act as presented by Mr. Pitroff was appreciated by the audience last evening and it was announced that at this evening's performance he will attempt to escape from several pairs of hand cuffs and leg irons, a challenge having been made to him by a citizen of the city.
